

Places children can eat for less (or free)
this December break...

TESCO

Kids can eat free at Tesco cafes when an adult buys anything in the cafe, including drinks. The offer is available Monday to Friday during the school holidays, but excludes weekends.

You'll need your Clubcard and to check your local store is running the offer.

ASDA

Kids can eat for £1 all day, every day at Asda cafes, with no adult spend required. Asda also provides free Ella's baby food pouches for children under 18 months old with any purchase.

More free Café meals for the kids. Get one free kids meal with any adult meal over £5 from The Breakfasts, The Classics or The Chippy, excluding extras.

Sainsbury's

The Sainsbury's logo is displayed in a bold, orange, sans-serif font. Below the text is a thin, curved orange line that arches under the word.

Get a kids' meal for £1 (normally £3.25) when purchasing an adult main meal for £5.20 or more. The offer is valid from 11.30am until café closing time.

Dine at Dunelm's Pause Cafe and enjoy a complimentary children's meal with every £4 purchase.

If you visit an Ikea store with a restaurant from 11am on Saturday to Thursdays, kids can eat a main meal from 95p. There's no minimum spend required and it excludes Fridays.

Bella Italia

Pizza ♥ Pasta ♥ Grill

If you dine in at Bella Italia, kids can eat for free all day on Thursdays when an adult main is purchased from the 'A La Carte' menu. Kids can also eat for £1 on Sunday to Wednesday between 4pm-6pm, again when an adult main meal is purchased.

SIZZLING

PUB & GRILL

Dine out as a family for under £15 when you head to any Sizzling Pub on weekdays between 3pm to 7pm.

Families of four can enjoy two adult main meals for less than £12 and two kids' main meals for £1 each.

Up to two children aged under 16 can eat a 'free' breakfast at any Beefeater restaurant when accompanied by an adult buying an unlimited cooked breakfast.

Up to two children aged under 16 can eat a 'free' breakfast at any Brewers Fayre restaurant when accompanied by an adult buying an unlimited cooked breakfast.

HUNGRY HORSE

If you go into your local Hungry Horse pub on a Monday, kids can eat from £1 when an adult purchases a main meal.
